Press Release

May 3, 2024 | Ouagadougou, Burkina Faso | English

Mr Jean Luc TRAORE, chartered accountant recruited as Executive Secretary of the Ordre National des Experts Comptables et des Comptables Agréés du Burkina Faso (ONECCA- BF).

ONECCA-BF (Ordre des Experts Comptables et des Comptables Agréés du Burkina Faso) is delighted to announce the appointment today, 03 May 2024, of Mr Jean Luc TRAORE, Chartered Accountant, as Executive Secretary..

Mr Jean Luc TRAORE joins the ONECCA-BF team at a time when the Board, in pursuing its strategic vision of safeguarding and preserving the public interest and providing high value-added services to members, is speeding up the implementation of its strategic objectives.

He has sixteen (16) years' proven experience in management, regulation, audit, accounting and consultancy. These years of experience were acquired in private companies, including almost ten (10) in the banking sector and four (4) in chartered accountancy firms..

A chartered accountant, Mr Traore has managed a number of teams in the course of his career and has written or helped to write a several reports and minutes.

Commenting on his appointment, Mr. Jean Luc TRAORE said: "I am delighted and humbled by this opportunity. The engagement of the accountancy profession has never been more crucial if society is to tackle many of the world's most pressing economic and environmental problems. I look forward to making an effective contribution to the fulfilment of our public interest missions"

Mr Alassane OUEDRAOGO, 1st Vice-President of ONECCA-BF, said: "We are very fortunate to have found a dynamic young colleague to lead the PAO into the next chapter of its journey, and I would like to thank the members of the Council office for their efforts in identifying the best candidate for the job. His in-depth knowledge of the issues facing the profession, his keen sense of organization and his commitment to serving the public interest promise to serve well all the ONECCA-BF stakeholders of our PAO well".

About ONECCA-BF

ONECCA-BF (Ordre National des Experts Comptables et des Comptables Agréés du Burkina Faso) is the National Professional Accountancy organization (PAO) dedicated to serve the public interest by strengthening the profession and contributing to the development of a strong economy in Burkina Faso, the region and beyond. ONECCA-BF has 140 members broken-up as following: 99 Individuals and 41 Accounting firms, serving all industries, public or private in Burkina Faso and abroad. ONECCA-BF is a full member of ABWA, PAFA, FIDEF and an associate member of IFAC.

communications@oneccabf.org
01BP 44 Ouagadougou 01
Email : onecca@fasonet.bf
Tel. : +226 25 31 47 50